Students must include client name(s) on timesheet if the client is provided services beyond Advice Only.

The ABA requires that a clinical course must:
1. integrate doctrine, theory, skills, and legal ethics, and engage students in performance of one or more of the professional skills identified in Standard 302;
2. develop the concepts underlying the professional skills being taught;
3. provide multiple opportunities for performance; and
4. provide opportunities for self-evaluation.

For the purposes of Standard 302(d), other professional skills . . . may include skills such as interviewing, counseling, negotiation, fact development and analysis, trial practice, document drafting, conflict resolution, organization and management of legal work, collaboration, cultural competency, and self-evaluation.

“Type of Work” can be Client Representation (CR); CR Preparation (P); or Administrative Work (AW)
