In recent years, the Pennsylvania Bar Institute has published many of its CLE seminars as ongoing serial publications. The Annual Intellectual Property Institute has been published now for six years and a cumulative index may prove useful to practitioners of intellectual property. This is one of a series of bibliographies prepared by the main author as a means to provide bibliographical information to various sections of the PBA. For multiple authors, we have listed each author and identified the main author with an asterisk (*). Because many of the article titles are short titles as subsections of a chapter, we have identified the chapters titles in brackets ([ ]).
