FINANCIAL AID
Students are eligible for government loans with summer tuition aid as long as you registered for 4.5 or more summer credits.

REFUND SCHEDULE
A student remains enrolled in a course until the Law School Registrar’s Office receives written notification of intent to withdraw from the course. A student withdrawing during the first week of summer school will receive a tuition refund of 65%. Thereafter, refunds are not issued.

GRADERS/DISMISSAL
Grades earned during Summer 2017 will be averaged together with grades earned during the 2017-2018 academic year. If a student is academically dismissed subsequent to completing the summer session course(s), the grade earned in the summer session will not become part of his/her academic history. The student will be involuntarily withdrawn from the summer session course(s) and will be unable to sit for any examinations. The student will be entitled to a full tuition refund.
A student academically dismissed after the Study Abroad Program has begun will not be entitled to a tuition refund or a grade. Academic Bulletin, http://law.duq.edu/academics/academic-bulletin

SUMMER SCHOOL POLICY

Students are limited to seven (7) summer school credits throughout your law school education including credits received from clinical programs and clerkships in the summer. Credits taken at other law schools in the summer are also included in the above stated policy. Summer credits does not reduce the minimum credit requirements for full-time or part-time residency in the following semester. (See Academic Bulletin)

TUITION

Tuition for Summer School is separate from and will not reduce tuition during the regular academic year. Summer Tuition is $850.00 per credit.

COURSE ENROLLMENT

Each course must have an enrollment of six (6) students or more for the course to proceed for the summer.

SUMMER 2017 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ANIMAL LAW – 2 crs.

Professor Schiavone (C451) 33762

No Prerequisite

Course Requirement: Paper

Enrollment limit: 20

Satisfies: Upper Level Writing Requirement

Fulfills Concentration: Government and Public Interest with Basic Government Track or Mission and Moral Life Track or Public Service and Community Engagement Track

Animal Law is a dynamic and growing subject of legal inquiry that frequently intersects with traditional legal subjects including Constitutional Law, Property Law, Family Law, Tort Law, Criminal Law and even Contract Law. This course will explore federal, state, and international law pertaining to animals of all kinds, including companion animals, domestic animals, and wild animals. In connection with our survey of the law, this course will explore the societal framework and assumptions that explicitly or implicitly influence laws and decisions dealing with animals. Additionally, we will consider the practical implications of animal law, and how, with increasing frequency, it is affecting the day-to-day practice of lawyers in Pennsylvania and around the country.

The course provides an introduction to the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) with a concentration on the Sales Article, Article 2. Related statutes such as the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CCISG) and the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act are also introduced. The course analyzes express and implied warranties, the cumulation and conflict of warranties and the disclaimer of warranties as well as limitations of remedy and failure of essential purpose. Rejection, acceptance and revocation of acceptance are carefully explored along with prospective nonperformance and adequate assurances of performance. The coverage of risk allocation includes risk of loss, the concept of Identification and casualty to identified goods, commercial impracticability and excusable nonperformance. The last portion of the course is devoted to a detailed analysis of buyer and seller remedies under the UCC. with particular attention to a clear understanding of direct, incidental and consequential damages. Throughout the course CISG applications are identified when they differ substantially from UCC applications.

All course Assignments will be posted to blackboard. In preparing for each class students will watch recorded lectures with accompanying powerpoint presentations; take the online quizzes that accompany each recorded lecture; read the relevant code sections in the codebook; and study the assigned cases and problems in the textbook. In addition beginning with the second class a few students will each be given an individual assignment (a case, a problem, or a code section) to prepare and resent to the class.
