Duquesne University School of Law
Appellate Moot Court Board
2015 – 2016

New Members’
Application for Appellate Moot Court Board Membership

Thank you for your interest in joining the 2015-2016 Appellate Moot Court Board (“AMCB”). The 2014-2015 and 2015-2016 AMCB Executive Boards, with approval from the Faculty Advisory Committee (the “Committee”), will select new members. The Executive Boards will consider the following factors in selecting members for the 2015-2016 Appellate Moot Court Board:

1. the student’s application;
2. the student’s resume;
3. the student’s Legal Research and Writing class performance;
4. and the student’s six-minute oral argument of his or her LRW appellate brief, to be held April 26, 2015.

By signing this application you are waiving your rights to maintain the confidentiality of your grades and your performance in the Legal Research and Writing program, but note that all information supplied in relation to this application will be kept confidential by the AMCB Executive Board and the Committee. It is critical that you also take a serious and realistic look at all other commitments you might have during the 2015-2016 academic year in order to determine whether you will have sufficient time to devote to the significant academic demands of an appellate moot court competition.

By submitting this application you are agreeing to cooperate with the AMCB Executive Board throughout the selection process. This includes submitting an accurate and truthful application packet, as well as participating in a mock oral argument and submitting a copy of your LRW appellate brief on April 26, 2015. Questions regarding the AMCB or the application process should be directed to Cara Pinto at pintoc@duq.edu.

This application must be completed and submitted in its entirety NO LATER THAN Friday, April 24, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. Please email your completed application and your resume to Cara Pinto at pintoc@duq.edu. Please be sure to include your name in the subject line of your email (i.e., John Doe – AMCB Application). Receipt of your application will be confirmed, and sign up sheets for students’ six-minute oral arguments will be posted on Monday, April 13, 2015, on the door of the McCardle Courtroom, located on the second floor in Room 304.
